Jürgen Habermas opens volume 2 with a brilliant reinterpretation of Mead and Durkheim and then develops his own approach to society combining two hitherto competing paradigms: system and lifeworld. The strength of this combination is then demonstrated in a detailed critique of Parsons's theory of social systems, concluding with a critical reconstruction of the Weberian and Marxian treatment of modernity and its discontents. Habermas sets a new agenda for the critical theory of contemporary society. The combination of historical and theoretical sweep, analytical acumen, and synthetic power, imagination, and engagement mark this as one of the great works of twentieth-century social theory.
