one of the inspirations for the smash hit Broadway musical Channel of Peace is an unforgettable memoir of the extraordinary kindness afforded to passengers whose flights were re-routed to Gander, Newfoundland, on September 11, 2001, when Kevin Tuerff and his partner boarded their flight from France to New York City on September 11.

2001 they had no idea that a few hours later the world and their lives would change forever after u s airspace closed following the terrorist attacks kevin who had been experiencing doubts about organized religion found himself in the small town of gander newfoundland with thousands of other refugees or come from aways channel of peace is a beautiful account of how the people of gander rallied with boundless acts of generosity and compassion for the plane people renewing kevin s spirituality and inspiring him to organize an annual and growing giving back day his unforgettable and uplifting story along with others has reached thousands of people when it was incorporated into the Broadway musical come from away this book traces the failure of international action in kosovo from the late 1980s until nato intervention in 1999 and endeavours to explain why during that time so many opportunities for making peace were squandered applying methodology developed by the eu conflict prevention network it divides the conflict into four main phases and examines how at each chances for settlement were either lost or overlooked it considers policy alternatives available at the time and hypothesises reasons why these were ultimately discarded drawing on a wide range of sources including the author s own experience of the negotiations process this book presents a hitherto unexplored thesis of the kosovo conflict that of a lag in international action in relation to the situation on the ground and seeks to draw from these failures some central lessons for the future of conflict prevention
