essentials of corporate finance 7th edition by ross westerfield and jordan is written to convey the most important concepts and principles of corporate finance at a level that is approachable for a wide audience the authors retain their modern approach to finance but have distilled the subject down to the essential topics in 18 chapters they believe that understanding the why is just as important if not more so than understanding the how especially in an introductory course three basic themes emerge as their central focus 1 an emphasis on intuition separate and explain the principles at work on a common sense intuitive level before launching into specifics underlying ideas are discussed first in general terms then followed by specific examples that illustrate in more concrete terms how a financial manager might proceed in a given situation 2 a unified valuation approach net present value is treated as the basic concept underlying corporate finance every subject the authors cover is firmly rooted in valuation and care is taken to explain how decisions have valuation effects 3 a managerial focus students learn that financial management concerns management the role of financial manager as decision maker is emphasised and they stress the need for managerial input and judgment get an immediate firm grasp of all the main fundamental financial issues that face your business this book provides a thorough grounding in value based management which is increasingly talked about but little understood discussion of mergers and the problems of merger failure i e acquiring shareholders losing out along with remedies the proper use of derivatives as tools to help a business control risk rather than increase it is explained in easy to follow and practically oriented fashion modern investment appraisal techniques in contrast with the rules of thumb frequently employed an overview of modern financial markets and instruments with insight into the benefits brought by effective exploitation of the markets and perils of ignoring the needs of the finance providers
