a walking tour through the haunted landscapes of the past in the company of the exiled and the departed the rings of saturn begins as the record of a journey on foot through coastal east anglia from lowestoft to southwold to bungay sebald s own story becomes the conductor of evocations of people and cultures past and present of chateaubriand thomas browne swinburne and conrad of fishing fleets skulls and silkworms the result is a book unlike any other in contemporary literature an intricately patterned and endlessly thought provoking meditation on the transience of all things human

this volume provides a dissection of w g sebald s fiction and his acclaim a german writer who taught in england for 30 years he published four novels first in german and then in english his work gained even greater acclaim after his death in 2001 just months after the publication of his title austerlitz summary w g sebald frequently mentioned in the same breath as franz kafka and vladimir nabokov is one of the most important european writers of recent decades he has been lauded by such major cultural commentators as susan sontag and paul auster and he has combined wide public appeal with universal critical acclaim his work is concerned with questions of memory exile representation and above all else history but his approach to history is strikingly different from conventional historiographical writing on the one hand and from the historical novel on the other his texts are hybrid in nature mixing fiction biography historiography travel writing and memoir and incorporating numerous photographic images this volume seeks to respond to the complexities of sebald's image of history by presenting essays by a team of international scholars all of whom are acknowledged sebald experts it offers a unique and exciting perspective on the dazzling work of one of the major literary figures of our times publisher description

w g sebald s books are sui generis hybrids of fiction travelogue autobiography and historical expos in which a narrator both sebald and not sebald comments on the quick blossoming of natural wonders and the long deaths that come of human atrocities all his narratives are punctuated with images murky photographs architectural plans engravings paintings newspaper clippings inserted into the prose without captions and often without obvious connection to the words that surround them this important volume includes a rare 1993 interview called but the written word is not a true document a conversation with w g sebald about photography and literature in which sebald talks exclusively about his use of photographs it contains some of sebald s most illuminating and poetic remarks about the topic yet in it he discusses barthes the photograph s appeal the childhood image of kafka family photographs and even images he never used in his writings in addition searching for sebald positions sebald within an art historical tradition that begins with the surrealists continues through joseph beuys and blossoms in the recent work of christian boltanski and gerhard richter and tracks his continuing inspiration to artists such as tacita dean and helen mirra an international roster of artists and scholars unpacks the intricacies of his unique method seventeen theoretical essays approach sebald through the multiple filters of art history krauss film studies kluge cultural theory benjamin psychoanalysis freud and especially photographic history and theory barthes kracauer and 17 modern and contemporary art projects are read through a sebaldian filter if sebald s artistic output acts as a touchstone for new critical theory being written on post medium photographic practices searching for sebald suggests a model for new investigations in the burgeoning field of visual studies for decades virginia woolf s work has been seen as part of the women s writing canon elizabeth abel extracts woolf from this women s tradition to position her in a different light one that shows woolf s role in a far reaching modernist genealogy abel traces the strong echoes of woolf in the work of four major writers from diverse cultural contexts nella larsen james baldwin roland barthes and w g sebald as abel shows what woolf called the odd affinities between herself and these successors give us an altogether different picture of the development of transnational modernism with woolf as a shadowy but important connection among disparate writers by charting new pathways of twentieth century literary transmission odd affinities will appeal to students and scholars working in new modernist studies comparative literature and african american studies the german novelist poet and critic w g sebald 1944 2001 has in recent years attracted a phenomenal international following for his evocative prose works such as die ausgewanderten the emigrants die ringe des saturn the rings of saturn and austerlitz spellbinding elegiac narratives which through their deliberate blurring of genre boundaries and provocative use of photography explore questions of heimat and exile memory and loss history and natural history art and nature saturn s moons a w g sebald handbook brings together in one volume a wealth of new critical and visual material on sebald s life and works covering the many facets and phases of his literary and academic careers as teacher as scholar and critic as colleague and as collaborator on translation lavishly illustrated the handbook also contains a number of rediscovered short pieces by w g sebald hitherto unpublished interviews a catalogue of his library and selected poems and tributes as well as extensive primary and secondary bibliographies details of audiovisual material and interviews and a chronology of life and works drawing on a range of original sources from sebald s nachlass the most important part of which is now held in the deutsches literaturarchiv marbach saturn s moons6g will be an invaluable sourcebook for future sebald studies in english and german alike complementing and augmenting recent critical works on subjects such as history memory modernity reader response and the visual the contributors include mark anderson anthea bell ulrich von buelow jo catling michael hulse florian radvan uwe schuette clive scott richard sheppard gordon turner stephen watts and luke williams jo catling teaches in the school of literature at the university of east anglia and richard hibbitt in the department of french at the university of leeds the masterworks of w g sebald now in gorgeous new covers by the famed designer peter mendelsund new directions is delighted to announce beautiful new editions of these three classic sebald novels including his two greatest works the emigrants and the rings of saturn all three novels are distinguished by their translations every line of which sebald himself made pitch perfect slaving to carry into english all his essential elements the shadows the lambent fallings back nineteenth century germanic undertones tragic elegiac notes and his unique quiet wit w g sebald s writing has been widely recognized for its intense nuanced engagement with the holocaust the allied bombing of germany in wwii and other episodes of violence throughout history through his inventive use of narrative form and juxtaposition of image and text sebald s work has offered readers new ways to think about remembering and representing trauma in sebald s vision carol jacobs examines the author s prose novels and poems illuminating the ethical and aesthetic questions that shaped his remarkable oeuvre through the trope of vision jacobs explores aspects of sebald s writing and the way the author s indirect depiction of events highlights the ethical imperative of representing history while at the same time calling into question the possibility of such representation jacobs s lucid readings of sebald s work also consider his famous juxtaposition of images and use of citations to explain his interest in the vagaries of perception isolating different ideas of vision in some of his most noted works including rings of saturn austerlitz and after nature as well as in sebald s interviews poetry art criticism and his lecture air war and literature jacobs introduces new perspectives for understanding the distinctiveness of sebald s work and its profound moral implications
