world christianity is concerned not with christianity as a global cultural and theological monolith but with local expressions of christian faith around the globe but christianity's presence in and among the world's cultures is complex and contested evangelization has often been the religious arm of colonial expansion and even authentically indigenous religious traditions have been swallowed up into linguistic and liturgical uniformity often neglected in the study of these phenomena is the meaning and role of the bible and biblical interpretation in shaping local christianities perhaps no modern expression of world christianity more dramatically illustrates this neglect than african especially sub saharan african christianity under the shade tree investigates theologically and historically how the bible was and is read in africa and by africans the european enlightenment provided a framework of biblical hermeneutics that still predominates in much of europe and north america but is it applicable to african christian hermeneutics what contextual experiences shape the interpretation of the bible in those parts of the world not directly influenced by the enlightenment ogbonnaya engages various ways of reading the bible in much of africa bearing in mind the diversities and complexities of the continent by studying the african origins of christian hermeneutics the key achievements of enlightenment perspectives and both the popular and scholarly approaches to the bible in africa today under the shade tree proposes a synthesis that pushes back against the way the bible is used in africa to support various forms of deceptions fraud and charlatan expressions of christianity it argues for critical study of the bible as the word of god not only for biblical scholarship but also for ordinary people s reading of the bible analysis of the writings of chinua achebe aimed at students of literature simon gikandi has set out to reveal the very nature of achebe s creativity its prodigious complexity and richness its paradoxes and ambiguities this is scholarship of real stature and supersedes all other studies of achebe s writing it comes at a good time achebe s literary reputation is equal to that of any living author and a substantial critical canon has been established g d killam professor of english university of guelph kenya eaep annotation a very funny very disturbing fiction about political corruption in the new nigeria set in the ibo heartland of eastern nigeria one of africa s best known writers describes the conflict between old and new in its most poignant aspect the personal struggle between father and son using the conflict between the city and tribal villages the ravages of the great african drought and third world politics as a compelling backdrop achebe weaves a potent drama of modern africa
