adam of bremen s gesta hammaburgensis ecclesiae pontificum is one of the most important accounts documenting the history geography and ethnology of northern and central eastern europe in the period between the ninth and eleventh centuries its author a canon of the archdiocese of hamburg bremen remains an almost anonymous figure but his text is an essential source for the study of the early medieval baltic however despite its undisputed status past scholarship has tended to treat adam of bremen s account as on the one hand an historically accurate document but on the other a literary artefact containing few if any reliable historical facts the studies collected in this volume investigate the origins and context of the gesta and will enable researchers to better understand and evaluate the historical veracity of the text
