this cutting edge book considers how advances in technologies and new media have transformed our perception of education and focuses on the impact of the privatisation of digital tools as a mean of knowledge production arguing that education needs to adapt to the modern learner the book s unique approach is based on a disassociation with the deeply ingrained attitude with which people have traditionally viewed education learning the existing symbolic systems of certain disciplines and then expressing themselves strictly within the operational modes of these systems the ways of knowledge production exploring recording representing making meaning of and sharing human experiences have been fundamentally transformed through the infusion of digital technologies into all aspects of human activity allowing learners to engage with their immediate natural social and cultural environments by capitalising on their individual abilities and interests this book proposes a new approach to teaching and learning termed cinematic bricolage which involves generating knowledge from heterogeneous resources in a do it yourself manner while making meaning through multimodal representations it shows how cinematic bricolage reconnects ways of knowing with ways of being empowering the individual with a sense of personal identity and responsibility helping to shape more aware social citizens get a behind the scenes glimpse of what it takes to be considered two of the worst figures in history with the third book in this nonfiction series that focuses on the most despicable historical figures bonnie parker and clyde barrow are possibly the most famous and most romanticized criminals in american history when the police found photos of them posing with guns and goofing around they became media darlings however their fame was short lived and their lives would end in a violent police ambush because the reality was very different during their 1930s crime spree the two young texans and the rest of their gang lived a vicious life filled with narrow escapes bungled robberies injuries and murders and they weren t the only gangsters operating at the time criminals like al capone charles pretty boy floyd and ma barker grabbed their own share of headlines but in the end it was bonnie and clyde who really captured the public s imagination a lot of that was because of bonnie herself the cute blonde criminal was unique at the time there is no question that their story continues to fascinate writers musicians visual artists and filmmakers but is that fascination justified or are we confusing the movie images with reality and ignoring the ugly truth of their story exegesis from the year 2020 in the subject theology biblical theology grade 1 0 kwame nkrumah university course religious studies language english abstract this exegetical exercise attempts a hermeneutics or interpretation of one of the most misunderstood genres of both the hebrew bible and the christian in the role of angels cherubim and seraphim the author argues that the narrative that describes them is meant to jog our analogical imagination so that our finite mind can try to picture what it is like to be in the presence of the divine the use of symbols such as animals sounds numbers etc is a means of pushing our finite mind to its utmost limit so as to get as close as it can to what is infinite this is particularly at a time of crisis or dystopian times such as the current covid 19 pandemic in order to provide hope that evil is not winning but that whatever discombobulation we may be undergoing are but the birth pangs of a new heaven and a new earth what are described as angels were not mythic creatures they were human messengers of god when the concept migrates into greek mythology angels like hermes are still messengers but they are more supernatural than terrestrial when greek mythology and hebrew mythology about angels they gave rise to all kinds of pictorial representations the purpose of the representations was to stretch our minds and in the case of the bible to help us reflect on the supernatural and to shore our belief that the supernatural is still in charge in relation to the cherubim and seraphim the hebrew bible does not even call them angels it reserved the word angel for human messengers as in gen 18 whatever way they are presented in art they are aids for analogical imagination rather than creatures to keep us awake at night or with which to frighten children they do not exist outside our analogical imagination like greek drama when we read the narrative we are not meant to be bystanders but participants in isaiah 6 for instance you are not meant to observing isaiah but you are a co participant in his drama if he is afraid you are also afraid if he is dejected you are also dejected if at the end there is a silver lining at the end of his horizon that should go for you too the narrative is meant to have a cathartic effect
