From Babel to AI: Idolatry, Transhumanism, and the Crisis of Imago Dei confronts the profound questions of human identity and purpose in an age dominated by technological innovation. Drawing from biblical narratives like the Tower of Babel, this thought-provoking work explores how artificial intelligence, transhumanism, and other modern advancements echo ancient struggles with idolatry and hubris. At its core, this book calls readers to rediscover the doctrine of the Imago Dei—the belief that humanity is created in the image of God—as the foundation for addressing the ethical and theological challenges of our time. Through compelling analysis and case studies, it unpacks the dangers of dehumanizing technologies and offers a robust theological framework for engaging them while safeguarding human dignity and relationality. Whether readers are scholars, church leaders, or thoughtful believers, wrestling with the implications of AI and transhumanism from Babel to AI will inspire all to think deeply, act faithfully, and reclaim humanity's divine purpose in a rapidly changing world.

In this book, Nélida Náveros Córdova offers an in-depth analysis of the use of the Greek term epithymia (desire) and its cognates in Paul's seven genuine letters in light of the Greek philosophical traditions of Plato and the Stoics, and the Hellenistic Jewish traditions of Philo and the Four Maccabees. Through the lens of these traditions of interpretation, Pauline texts are thoughtfully examined to bring to the fore his ethical understanding of the passion of desire, focusing on its association with idolatry within Paul's Christocentric monotheism and sexual vices that were common in the pagan Greco-Roman world. Náveros Córdova not only expounds the dangers of epithymia and its negative sequels (all kinds of passions, desires, sinful passions beyond measure, and excessive sexual desire) but also comprehensively elucidates Paul's solution to the problem of epithymia. She argues that Paul's remedy to avoid and/or control desire and eliminate excessive or irrational desire is not based on the practice of a commandment or food laws, which is the solution that Philo and the Four Maccabees give. Rather, Paul as a Hellenistic Jewish believer develops his solution in the context of his Christocentric approach, founded in the grace of God and the love commandment in the spirit.

A distinguished group of philosophers of religion explore the question of divine hiddenness.
