from late 2010 to the present day the arab world has been shot through with insurrection and revolt as a result tunisia is now seen as the unlikely birth place and exemplar of the process of democratisation long overdue in the arab world mixing political historical economic social and cultural analyses and approaches these essays reflect on the local regional and transnational dynamics together with the long and short term factors that when combined set in motion the tunisian revolution and the arab uprisings above all the book maps the intertwined genealogies of cultural dissent that have contributed to the mobilisation of protesters and to the sustenance of protests between 17 december 2010 and 14 january 2011 and beyond a periodical in part famous for the cartoon portraits of politicians and public figures these were mainly by spy i e sir leslie ward and ape i e carlo pellegrini this text concentrates on the economic sociology of return migration with specific reference to tunisia as such it aims to analyze on the one hand the patterns of resource mobilization and the strategies for survival developed by some tunisian entrepreneur returnees with a view to providing for the survival of their own business concerns as well as the elements which have shaped their entrepreneurial activities on the other by building a typology which comprises three categories of entrepreneur returnees namely the heirs the converts and the new entrepreneurs this book sets out to explain how and why some interviewed tunisian return migrants have succeeded in investing their past experiences of migration lived in europe in their current entrepreneurial activities in tunisia while being involved in the dynamics of cross border social and economic networks
