god gives an amazing word about nations in the minor prophets in the bible that is being worked out before our eyes this word fits into fulfilling jesus great commission and also the judgment of spiritual darkness that has come on many nations in the past 80 years the choice of the u s or any other nation for or against joining itself to the lord jesus depends crucially on the work or lack of it by the christians there we get to see what god calls believers to do to save their land this book focuses on the god ordered sequence of joel amos and jonah includes the strong conclusion from malachi and keeps to the main picture about nations today this main picture includes what ephesians 2 chron 7 13 14 and romans 8 show is needed to receive the blessed future of a nation in jesus instead of a just destruction the concept of blessing pervades the everyday life of christians from testimonies recounting god s provision to praise songs to wishing someone well in fact the term has been so integrated into christian language that it is rarely considered thoughtfully in the pages of scripture blessing seems to be either physical or spiritual but a fuller biblical theological approach reveals that god s blessing has always been both spiritual and physical in divine blessing and the fullness of life in the presence of god william osborne traces the theme of blessing throughout scripture as he guides readers into a deeper understanding of how god s gracious benevolence impacts the everyday lives of christians when surrounded by ethnic and tribal divides fear of demonic forces and the threat of poverty war and disease how are christians to resist despair in the face of suffering their own and that of their communities in blessed new humanity in christ rev prof bitrus a sarma offers a contextualized reading of the book of ephesians that provides a theology of hope for the african church looking to the cross as the source of all victory sarma reminds his readers of the promises of scripture salvation in christ is god s gift to humanity yet how the church understands that gift determines its ability to live out its calling in a world rife with trials and tribulations sarma offers an in depth exploration of the blessings outlined in ephesians and the implications of those blessings for christians longing to experience healing and wholeness in their families their societies and their own personal lives the message of the kingdom of god as brought to us by christ is a message that overturns hierarchies sets free the enslaved and breaks the power of the curse upon humanity yet when it comes to women the church has chosen all too often to live according to the structures of sin and death offering them not the good news of christ but the curse of genesis as their inheritance in this powerful and challenging text ksenija magda traces the impact of the curse and the ever present temptation to choose the world and its power over the servant hearted humility of christ on our families our church structures our nations and ultimately our gospel witness the question of how we view treat oppress or empower women is not magda reminds us peripheral to the gospel but foundational she warns that if men and women will not partner together in building the kingdom of god they will find themselves partners in the work of upholding the world's structures of power and oppression will we choose to bless the curse or to redeem it to live in the death that our foreparents chose in the garden or accept the life and freedom held out to us by christ this is a question upon which human history and the hope of our restoration hangs
