in the early summer of 1914 the headmaster of brighton college canon w r dawson spoke to the school in chapel he called on every boy present to stand ready to sacrifice his life in defence of his country no shot had yet been fired in anger austria s archduke still lived few anticipated a european war and yet brighton s headmaster seemed to sense the approaching clouds of conflict there were probably 280 boys in the chapel that day by november 1918 many of them were dead some of the total of 149 old boys killed in the great war ten of them were still teenagers this book presents mini biographies of the school s former students killed in the first world war and serves as a fitting tribute to their bravery and fortitude this ecvp is a new technical product that aims to anticipate and collectively delineate the clinical trial observational and other data likely to be required by global and national policy makers and to do so when most valuable during development of the late stage clinical plan including the design of the pivotal licensure trial proactively generating this evidence as part of or in parallel to clinical development where feasible rather than reactively post licensure creates an opportunity to accelerate vaccine policy formulation adoption and impact particularly in lmics accepting and excepting on pluralism and chosenness out of the sources of judaism is a collection of essays examining the need for inter religious pluralism so long as religions compete with each other by exclusive claims to absolute truth and salvation how can they cooperate as forces for peace in an era of the global village and weapons of mass destruction our cognition of reality is necessarily colored and shaped by language culture religion and gender given inevitable epistemological not moral relativism exclusive and absolute truth claims are meaningless by a process of revaluation jews can affirm the concept of the chosen people as internally directed with no claims of superiority and observe traditional sancta without traditional theism over the last sixty years washington has been a major player in the politics of the middle east from iran in the 1950s to the gulf war of 1991 to the devastation of contemporary iraq us policy has had a profound impact on the domestic affairs of the region anti americanism is a pervasive feature of modern middle east public opinion but far from being intrinsic to muslim political culture scepticism of the us agenda is directly linked to the regional policies pursued by washington by exploring critical points of regional crisis kylie baxter and shahram akbarzadeh elaborate on the links between us policy and popular distrust of the united states the book also examines the interconnected nature of events in this geo strategically vital region accessible and easy to follow it is designed to provide a clear and concise overview of complex historical and political material key features include maps illustrating key events and areas of discontent text boxes on topics of interest related to the arab israeli wars iranian politics foreign interventions in afghanistan and iraq the wars of the persian gulf september 11 and the rise of islamist movements further reading lists and a selection of suggested study questions at the end of each chapter as the old saying goes you can pick your friends but not your relatives in tranquil northumberland county ontario two families are well acquainted with the grim truth of that innocuous sounding expression they are the descendants of the first and only man executed in northumberland s history in a sordid true crime tale of poison and philandering in 1850s ontario the respected dr william henry king astonished the countryside with the sinister murder of his wife and with his subsequent attempts to evade justice his capture and conviction were triumphs of vengeful relatives and early forensic science dan buchanan a blood relative of dr king s grew up dogged by rumours of his ancestor s bloody crime but family shame and obfuscation left him with more questions as time wore on now based on original documents breathless reportage of the sensational king trial and interviews held just after the notorious hanging buchanan reconstructs the full tale of crime and punishment which shocked the province and has engendered speculation for over a century and a half both europe and the us have now dampened the shrillness of the invective hurled against each other over the last years but the underlying differences have not been resolved the two sides drift apart in their views on what internal politics should achieve as well as in their vision of the global order they would like to see established the economies of both Europe and the US are highly developed and densely interwoven their societies are post industrial many social and economic trends converge similar too are the challenges to maintain security against threats emanating from other parts of the world divergences thus do not originate from conflicting material interests they arise from different perceptions of the nature and of threats from the outside world from how the two societies wish to define themselves through their internal and external policies the search for a distinct European or American identity fuels this discord therefore appeals to common merely material interests will not obliterate it the contributions to this book come from altogether twelve authors each of them addressing the issues from the perspective of his or her own discipline the book aims to reach not just academia but also beyond to those that are involved in actual international decision making this open access book on open source data and the trade in cultural heritage is foundational for object biography provenance research studies and social science methodological education interest in studying the illicit trade in cultural objects as well questions around ownership access and protection have grown in recent years however this interdisciplinary field requires a range of methodological skills in order to trace an object's ownership history and the social network underpinning its trade drawing from a diverse group of researchers and practitioners this edited volume brings together methodological ethical and disciplinary considerations in the use of open source data to research the trade and transfer of cultural objects as such it will serve as the paramount guide to anyone who is interested in doing research on this topic
