education is a paradoxical phenomenon on the one hand it is universal as since the period of enlightenment it has been declared universal good for everybody moreover we learnt by historical research following the ideas of world system theory that since this time as far as its main structures are concerned compulsory state education given by professional teachers in classrooms it took even universal traits however on the other hand the fact that education became state education organised or at least controlled by the state was the beginning of another tradition line education in the form of state organised educational institutions became a means of creating national identity universal inclusion as for the light of reason shining for everybody is opposed to more or less nationalist exclusion of all the others shaping the feature of a particular nation state with a particular educational system this fundamental dialectical tension between the universal and the particular was one to the important motives to make this handbook one of the central issues of the country studies is precisely to display the relationship between universal values and the search for national identity another motive is given by the european dimension of the handbook the black sea region rarely hit the media headlines until the outbreak of war in georgia in 2008 yet its importance as a focus of european union eu external policy making had already been growing for several years the area is fascinating and diverse comprising both large and small states with a mixture of democracies and more authoritarian regimes traditionally a central foreign policy concern for russia and turkey since the end of the cold war the eu and the us have become increasingly involved in the many dimensions of black sea politics this book brings together a broad range of specialists on the region to analyze the challenge of divergent agendas both within and outside the eu more specifically it looks at how the eu's enlargement to include states on the black sea shore has brought about new external policies including the european neighbourhood policy black sea synergy and the eastern partnership all representing subtly different aims and interests the various sections in the book also examine regionalization conflict resolution security relationships between the black sea's states and last but not least the vital issue of energy which has begun to dominate the discussion of the region designed to further the debate on the future of eu policies for the black sea region this book is an essential resource for researchers students and others in search of a coherent picture of the inter relationship of eu initiatives and policies in the region initially introducing compliance functions within the financial industry had been forced by regulatory scrutiny later it started to spread to other regulated companies in particular those publicly listed now compliance has become an asset of corporates that want to build their reliability among clients shareholders employees and business partners this book looks at the efficiency of the compliance measures introduced and the best practices of building compliance norms this recently observed practice of compliance was triggered by the expectation of regulators shareholders clients business partners and the public for robust compliance mechanisms this book looks at the vast interest in this topic among business people who strive to introduce the systems and the mechanisms of non compliance risk management in their companies and at the uncountable difficulties and obstacles they meet the book fills the gap of thorough analysis of this subject by pointing out the solutions successfully introduced in global financial organizations and would be of interest to academics researchers and practitioners in corporate finance corporate governance and risk management the ink on the treaties of rome of 25 march 1957 was hardly dry when the commission set itself up for business on 1 january 1958 in brussels with an agenda covering all areas of the economic life of the six founder countries germany france italy and the three benelux countries of belgium luxembourg and the netherlands the 15 year period from 1958 to 1972 covered by this work corresponds to the beginnings of the european commission whose first task was to come up with practical means of achieving the treaties main objective the establishment of a common market taking as its point of departure the general interest of the entire community of six member states forged by men and women with often very different backgrounds the history of the first few years is one of crises but also of achievements which shaped the major milestones of european integration in almost every area imagination long term vision enthusiasm and tenacity seem to have been the great virtues of the people working for the young european institution at that time by piecing together over a number of years the recollections of former commission officials a consortium of university teachers under the direction of professor michel dumoulin of the catholic university of louvain at louvain la neuve has at last made it possible to tell the story of what happened during those early days this is a new edition of the book originally published in 2007 a similar project has since resulted in the publication of a book about the history of the commission between 1973 and 1986 editor both europe and the us have now dampened the shrillness of the invective hurled against each other over the last years but the underlying differences have not been resolved the two sides drift apart in their views on what internal politics should achieve as well as in their vision of the global order they would like to see established the economies of both europe and the us are highly developed and densely interwoven their societies are post industrial many social and economic trends converge similar too are the challenges to maintain security against threats emanating from other parts of the world divergences thus do not originate from conflicting material interests they arise from different perceptions of the nature and of threats from the outside world from how the two societies wish to define themselves through their internal and external policies the search for a distinct european or american identity fuels this discord therefore appeals to common merely material interests will not obliterate it the contributions to this book come from altogether twelve authors each of them addressing the issues from the perspective of his or her own discipline the book aims to reach not just academia but also beyond to those that are involved in actual international decision making
