in 1802 louisiana was administered by the french napoleon had denied access by the usa to new orleans and there was a real risk that the two countries would go to war on christmas day tom paine wrote a short letter to the president thomas jefferson suggesting that the usa should purchase louisiana from the french within a year the deal had been done when it comes to disputes about territory and natural resources are we missing a trick could we make more use of financial solutions to settle disputes in agrarian justice tom paine asserted the principle that a landowner owes to the community a ground rent land value tax that should be distributed to all if this distribution were to go beyond the national boundary this would dramatically reduce the incentive for one state to grab the territory of another buying or even better renting territory could be used more often when conflict threatens and would constitute active peace building tom paine s agrarian justice 1797 continues to inspire progressive politicians today as a source of two contemporary policies land value taxation and universal basic income citizen s income his starting point was the belief widespread until the end of the eighteenth century that the earth is the common property of humankind rather than advocating the common ownership of land he proposed that landowners owe to the community a ground rent the market rent of their land he advocated that this be paid into a fund to be used for the benefit of all both as a lump sum payment on reaching adulthood and as a pension for older people he is well worth reading for his passion and rhetoric this publication also includes a riposte written in the same year by thomas spence who had published a similar but more radical proposal in 1776 it also contains a 20th century re statement of individual and common rights to the earth and a summary of the relevance of agrarian justice today
