under the floodlights is the fascinating story of the league cup charting its rich history through 64 seasons with contributions from the people who were there players fans managers journalists and match officials the competition was conceived in 1960 as an alternative to the FA Cup with midweek cup matches to be played under the floodlights initially though it was met with indifference by clubs and derision by Fleet Street the format of the competition was changed several times and it wasn't until 1967 that it really picked up traction when the final was moved to Wembley and changed to a single leg it went from strength to strength with all 92 clubs competing over the next few years and European places up for grabs unlike the FA Cup the League Cup final has featured clubs from the bottom tiers of the Football League as the competition approaches its 65th anniversary this book brings us the full untold story

The FA Cup is the greatest and most coveted football trophy in the world published to coincide with the beginning of the English FA's Premier event John Motson here provides football lovers and laymen alike with a wealth of illuminating and essential trivia on the Cup's history

All the vital information fans never knew they needed about the world's oldest cup competition including a gypsy curse that lasted for decades and the time Jeremy Paxman tackled Kenny Dalglish fans will find this book packed with irresistible anecdotes and the most mindblowing stats and facts heard the one about the referee who had to hide in a broom cupboard from a furious naked goalkeeper do you know how an FA Cup quarter final between Notts County and Stoke changed football forever or how a fragile corner flag stopped some Spartans from marching on curious to know which current player has a winner's medal for every day of the week all these stories and hundreds more appear in a brilliantly researched collection of trivia essential for any football fan who holds the riches of almost 140 years of cup culture close to their heart
