based on the hit bbc 5live podcast series the trillion dollar conman is an audacious tale of an international fraud that is stranger than fiction in 2009 notts county fc were on the brink of bankruptcy when they were taken over by a mysterious company supposedly backed by the bahraini royal family the club was promised millions of pounds worth of investment and a list of marquee players including sol campbell and kasper schmeichel were signed in a recruitment drive led by former england manager sven göran eriksson who was appointed to take the club all the way to the premier league however within weeks as the bills began to pile up the dream came tumbling down as it transpired that the club the players and the fans had been tricked by a convicted fraudster called russell king the world s oldest professional football club found itself at the centre of one of the most outlandish frauds in sporting and world history which spanned the globe from nottingham to north korea involving fake sheikhs fast cars broken promises and a trail of destruction

what is the place of individual choice and consequence in a post holocaust world of continuing genocidal ethnic cleansing is identity now a last ditch cultural defence of ethnic nationalisms and competing fundamentalisms in a climate of instant information free markets and possible ecological disaster how do we define rights self interest and civic duties what are the acceptable limits of scientific investigation and genetic engineering the rights and wrongs of animal rights euthanasia and civil disobedience introducing ethics confronts these dilemmas tracing the arguments of the great moral thinkers including socrates plato aristotle hobbes and kant and brings us up to date with postmodern critics introducing plato begins by explaining how philosophers like socrates and pythagoras influenced plato s thought it provides a clear account of plato s puzzling theory of knowledge and explains how this theory then directed his provocative views on politics ethics and individual liberty it offers detailed critical commentaries on all of the key doctrines of platonism especially the very odd theory of forms and concludes by revealing how plato s philosophy stimulated the work of important modern thinkers such as karl popper martha nussbaum and jacques derrida introducing guide to the pioneering child psychoanalyst born in vienna in 1882 melanie klein became a pioneer in child psychoanalysis and developed several ground breaking concepts about the nature and crucial importance of the early stages of infantile development although she was a devoted freudian many of her ideas were seen within the psychoanalytic movement as highly controversial and this led to heated conflicts particularly with freud s daughter anna introducing melanie klein brilliantly explains klein s ideas and shows the importance of her startling discoveries which raised such opposition at the time and are only now being recognized for their explanatory power her concepts of the depressive position and the paranoid schizoid position are now in common usage and her work has to be taken seriously by psychoanalysts the world over she is also now important in many academic fields within the human sciences through examination of the death penalty in literature aaron aquilina contests heidegger s concept of being towards death and proposes a new understanding of the political and philosophical subject dickens nabokov hugo sophocles and many others explore capital punishment in their works from antigone to invitation to a beheading using these varied case studies aquilina demonstrates how they all highlight two aspects of the experience first they uncover a particular state of being or more precisely non being that comes with a death sentence and second they reveal how this state exists beyond death row as sovereignty and alterity are by no means confined to a prison cell in contrast to heidegger s being towards death which individualizes the subject only i can die my own death supposedly this book argues that when condemned to death the self and death collide putting under erasure the category of subjectivity itself be it death row or not when the supposed futurity of death is brought into the here and now we encounter what aquilina calls relational death living on with death severs the subject s relation to itself the other and political sociality as a whole rendering the human less a named and recognizable being than an anonymous living corpse a human thing in a sustained engagement with blanchot levinas hegel agamben and derrida the ontology of death articulates a new theory of the subject beyond political subjectivity defined by sovereignty and beyond the heideggerian notion of ontological selfhood
