how good was negro league baseball 1920 1948 some experts maintain that the quality of play was equal to that of the american and national leagues some believe the negro leagues should be part of major league baseball s official record and that more negro league players should be in the hall of fame skeptics contend that while many players could be rated highly nl organizations were minor league at best drawing on the most comprehensive data available including stats from more than 2 000 interracial games this study finds that black baseball was very good indeed negro leaguers beat the big leaguers more than half the time in head to head contests demonstrated stronger metrics within their own leagues and excelled when finally allowed into the majors the authors document the often duplicitous manner in which mlb has dealt with the legacy of the negro leagues and an appendix includes the scores and statistics from every known contest between negro league and major league teams although andrew rube foster 1879 1930 stands among the best african american pitchers of the 1900s this baseball pioneer made his name as the founder and president of the negro national league the first all black league to survive a full season in addition to founding this groundbreaking black owned and operated business foster also founded and managed the chicago american giants one of the most successful black baseball teams of the pre integration era this definitive biography combines period editorials and correspondence with insightful narrative to provide a comprehensive portrait of this innovative hall of famer from the unstructured early days of black baseball when foster gained glory as a hard throwing pitcher through his struggles to establish the nnl and the giants to his tragic death from complications of syphilis this work pays overdue tribute to an authentic american baseball icon between 1915 and 1930 nine towns in the blue ridge mountains of pennsylvania maryland and west virginia hosted teams in one of the most successful class d minor leagues in professional baseball the blue ridge league launched the careers of legendary hall of famers lefty grove and hack wilson and served as a training ground or final stop for over 100 major league players this feisty league challenged laws prohibiting sabbath baseball games resulting in mass arrests of players and management pioneered night baseball served as a laboratory for the establishment of baseball s farm system and helped develop a postseason five state championship series traces the history of the negro leagues profiling star athletes and highlighting the challenges they and their teams faced until the desegregation of professional baseball in the late 1940s painstakingly researched and documented this volume is a comprehensive year by year reference work giving important yet often obscure dates in negro league history from the negro leagues organized beginning in 1920 through their steep decline immediately after jackie robinson s 1947 breaking of the color barrier entries cover league meetings noteworthy games the commentary of columnists and important events on and off the field controversies that defined the experience of black baseball organizers such as player rights disputes failure to adhere to league schedules and violations of league rules are also included here during the nazi regime s swift rise to power no single target of nazification took higher priority than germany s young people well aware that the nazi party could thrive only through the support of future generations hitler instituted a youth movement the hitler jugend hitler youth which indoctrinated the easily malleable students of germany s schools and universities along with its female counterpart the bund deutscher madel league of german girls the hitler youth produced many thousands of young germans who were deeply and fanatically imbued with the nazi racist ideology this heavily illustrated book outlines the history and development of the hitler youth from its origins in 1922 until it was disbanded by the allied powers in 1945
