kauto star nijinsky arkle desert orchid frankel red rum how do you rank the best british and irish horses from both flat racing and jumping how do you compare a fleet footed sprinter with the robust staying power of a steeplechaser robin oakley s highly personal list will provoke debate among racing fans everywhere a lifelong devotee of racing and well known as the turf correspondent for the spectator former bbc political editor robin oakley has made his selection not just on statistics but on the fun factor giving prominence to horses who seized the public s imagination he brings the legendary names of past and present vividly to life with a wealth of fascinating stories behind their victories illuminated by archive photographs that illustrate the athleticism character and courage of the horses britain and ireland s top 100 racehorses of all time is the perfect gift for any fan of racing and its colourful history the recent retirement of mick kinane doyen of flat racing jockeys whose swansong was his 2009 classic victories on the great sea the stars reminded us once again how many of the greatest jockeys in racing over jumps as well as on the flat hail from ireland brian o connor is the experienced racing correspondent of the irish times and his survey of the twelve finest jockeys currently riding in ireland six on the flat six national hunt was acclaimed in hardback by both the racing press and the irish media he interviewed most of the featured jockeys specially for the book and provides a truly intimate insight into what has made them great race riders and what inspires their continuing hunger to succeed at the very top the full list of jockeys covered is on the flat michael kinane john murtagh jamie spencer kieren fallon pat smullen and kevin manning over jumps ruby walsh barry geraghty tony mccoey paul carberry timmy murphy and nina carberry an outstanding insight into the life and career of one of the greatest national hunt jockeys the bad days the good days the passion it's all there rachael blackmore davy russell's story has been the most fascinating of racing journeys donn mcclean its classiest chronicler it makes a national winning combination brough scott davy russell is one of the most interesting characters in racing and one of the most successful national hunt riders of our time this is a superb book one of the best sports books i've read eamon dunphy from davy russell's early life in youghal to his winning ride on tiger roll in the 2018 grand national this book has it all capturing the highs of an incredible career as a top jockey from the adrenaline rush of winning the grand national twice the cheltenham gold cup and the grand steeple chase de paris it also dwells on the devastating blows that davy experienced through injury and shows his huge resilience and strength of character in the book davy tells of his years on the point to point scene his big move to england and his first cheltenham victory in 2006 his experiences at michael o leary's gigginstown stud as the number one rider working with gordon elliot his charity work with hurling for cancer research and his retirement it is a truly remarkable journey written by the most entertaining jockey in the business it is said the land level of ireland rises a few feet every march because so many people have left for the national hunt festival at cheltenham english irish rivalry at this pinnacle of jump racing has always been keen but it has risen to new levels in the 21st century with many Irish winners across all the races including the Gold Cup, Queen Mother Chase, Champion Hurdle and Stayers Hurdle. But Festival Fever, the Irish at Cheltenham, is about more than the winners. It is the whole atmosphere, the mix of ex-pat and visiting Irish among the thronging crowds, the craic, what goes on behind the scenes. Many surprising stories are told. It is also about the fascinating history: racing was banned at Cheltenham for a period during the 19th century and the 1980s saw a dearth of Irish runners which led to enterprising attempts by the racecourse to woo them back.

An account of the author's three hundred fifty mile walk from one end of Ireland to the other describes the people he encountered as well as the castles, forts, cities, villages, pubs and landmarks he visited.

This is indeed the perfect resource and handy reference book to Ireland today as well as providing important information about Ireland past. All within the covers of one inexpensively priced paperback book for anyone interested in Irish culture, history, politics, the arts, industry and sports. This is the one book you must have. It contains detailed statistics and tables on current population, trends, political parties, industrial development, mining, fishing, religion, tourism, the media and much more. The authors have put modern Ireland in context by providing considerable detail about key personalities past and present who have shaped the political, social and economic landscape of the country.

The pinnacle of the Irish racing calendar, the Powers Irish Grand National encompasses all that is great about the Irish passion for the sport. Run for the first time in 1870 and won by Sir Robert Peel, the National quickly established itself as Ireland's most valuable steeplechase and since then each success has had its own enchanting story featuring runners and riders from yesteryear such as Arkle and Pat Taaffe who have since become part of Irish racing folklore. This chronicle of the race brings the story up to the present day with the modern heroes such as Bobbyjo and Paul Carberry demonstrating the achievements of Irish born and bred owners, trainers, jockeys and horses who will all leave their mark on the sport. Lavishly illustrated in full color with photography by Pat Heeley, the official race photographer, this is a celebration of the Irish love of the sport and the Easter event that captivates the hearts and minds of all those on the emerald isle
