the fix how the first champions league was won and why we all lost is an engrossing examination of the 1992 93 uefa champions league season in 1980s europe revolution was in the air and the corridors of footballing power were not immune from the forces sweeping the continent the breakup of czechoslovakia yugoslavia and the ussr gave uefa a problem there were more national teams and league champions than their post war competitions were designed to handle rather than the collapse of communism the bigger headache for administrators was the success of capitalism gordon gekko styled businessmen like silvio berlusconi ac milan and bernard tapie marseille were beginning to involve themselves in football with less than benign motives against the backdrop of constant threats from the continent s most powerful clubs to form a breakaway super league the uefa champions league was born the fix looks at that infamous first season from its humble beginning on a faroese hillside to its ultimate conclusion in a french courtroom

this is a stimulating and deeply insightful football narrative by rafa benitez which focuses on the legendary manager s dramatic six champions league campaigns with liverpool rafa expertly navigates fans through intriguing european adventures that embrace the triumph and despair of two champions league finals three semi finals and five quarter finals in what was a golden era for the anfield club an era that supporters felt gave them their pride back after years in the wilderness what sets this apart is the unique ways in which rafa allows fans into his high pressured world the fascinating glimpses he offers of a top manager s thought processes and decision making during the cut and thrust of a high octane european campaign understand how a great manager prepares for then executes a master plan for european success

one of the greatest football managers of our time tells the story of his illustrious career through his record breaking seven champions league wins featuring interviews with jude bellingham paolo maldini luka modric and davide ancelpotti carlo ancelpotti has won domestic titles in all of Europe's top five leagues with teams including AC Milan, Juventus, Paris St Germain, Bayern Munich, Chelsea and Real Madrid. Yet the accolade that truly sets him apart from his contemporaries is his track record in the Champions League as a player. Ancelotti lifted the trophy twice as a manager. He brought Champions League glory to his teams a remarkable five times as he embarks on an exciting new era of his career as the manager of Real Madrid. Ancelotti reflects on his love of the world's most sought-after title. The dream is a rich football memoir that takes you inside the mind of a winner from dreaming of the trophy as a child to the key games, players and moments of each campaign. We build a unique sense of a great tactician at work as well as an intimate portrait of club football's greatest competition.

Andy Brassell spends the 2003-04 season travelling from Marseille to Moscow, from Madrid to Manchester, getting to the heart of the Champions League, the world's greatest club football competition.

The Undisputed Champions of Europe is a trilogy ending homage to the golden era of the European Cup, a place where the gods of the game battled for the biggest prize in club football. A place where the likes of Di Stefano, Eusebio, Best, Cruyff, Beckenbauer, Dalglish, Gullit and so many others became legends as they skated across thin ice to glory in the colours of clubs that are now considered European royalty. An entirely different beast than the Champions League, it was a competition where you had to win your domestic league title to gain entry, with no safety net of group stages. One bad night of football was enough to send you back to square one. In contrast to today's Champions League winners, whose status as Europe's best team is regularly disputed, the winners of the European Cup truly were the undisputed kings of Europe. These are the stories and glories of football's highest achievers.

A superb book and a must-read for any City fan. Daniel Taylor, senior writer, The Athletic. A thorough and delicious retelling of perhaps not the most successful of European journeys but definitely the most interesting. Fantastic. David Mooney, BBC Radio 5 Live. A book that brilliantly explodes the myth that City have no history or pedigree in Europe. Simon Mullock, chief football writer, Sunday Mirror. The essential new history of Manchester City's European triumphs and tragedies, featuring a foreword by City legend Francis Lee. As one of the first English sides to taste glory in Europe, lifting the Cup Winners' Cup in 1970, City looked set for life among the continent's elite. But as their domestic fortunes went from bad to worse to absolute calamity, the wilderness returned. Avid City fan and respected journalist Simon Curtis dusts off the details of some truly intoxicating away days filled with tales of the club's travelling support and the evocative accounts of the journalists who saw the team of the seventies. Curtis tells the story of a club steeped in history, defiantly refusing to bow to pomp and ceremony as it goes about lifting the ultimate prize after a spectacular rebuild and having achieved all there is to achieve on the domestic stage, including a record-breaking 100-point season in 2017-18. City's deep-pocketed owners have their sights firmly set on European glory once more. Yet for all their recent success at home, they are anything but welcome guests at Europe's top table.
